ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal gratefully acknowledges the continuing and vital support of the our sponsoring institution, the University of Washington School of Law, and in particular Dean Wallace D. Loh, and the Journal's Business Manager, John Michalik.

The Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal also wishes to thank Michael D. Garvey, of the law firm Garvey, Schubert and Barer of Seattle, Washington, for his considerate and generous support of the Journal.

Finally, the staff of the Journal congratulates Griffith Way, recipient of the Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal's first annual award for dedicated support of the Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal and/or innovative contributions to the Pacific Rim legal community. Mr. Way, a prominent international practice attorney, has made significant contributions to the Pacific Rim's legal and policy-making environment through his contributions to the University of Washington School of Law's Asian Law Program, his excellent authorship, and his membership in many other professional and civic associations. Mr. Way's contributions to the legal environment have helped to make this publication possible. Griffith Way has our profound thanks.
