

8-30-1889

Our Law Framers. The Closing Chapter (Aug. 30, 1889)

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/waconst\_news

---

Recommended Citation

Our Law Framers. The Closing Chapter (Aug. 30, 1889), WASH. STANDARD (1889), https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/waconst\_news/70

This Washington Standard is brought to you for free and open access by the Washington State Constitution History at UW Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspapers by an authorized administrator of UW Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact cnyberg@uw.edu.

"Hew to the Line, Let the Chips Fall Where They May."

VOLUME XXVIII—NUMBER 40.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON TERRITORY, FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 30, 1889.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,321.

WASHINGTON STANDARD

Editor and Proprietor: JOHN MILLER MURPHY

Subscription Rates: Per year, in advance, $2.75

Business Cards

C. L. FLANNICAN, M. D., CHAMBERS' BLOCK

U. S. DEPUTY SURVEYOR, Residence: Sixth Street, Swan's Addition

CARLTON HOUSE, A. D. WHITNEY, PROPRIETOR

J. G. PROCTOR, Architect and Superintendent

C. N. HUNTER, DENTIST

W. L. BROWN, M. D., YOUNG'S HOTEL, OLYMPIA, W. T.

MEMORANDA

Last night a son was born to the wife of Mr. Robt. Marr, of Eastside.

Ex-Surveyor General Breckenridge is about leaving for a trip to the Atlantic States.

Capt. McKieken, now a rancher in the lower Chehalis valley, paid Olympia a visit, this week.

The fire alarm, last night, was caused by the near approach of a forest blaze to the depot grounds, but no damage was done.

The Signal Service office reports: minimum thermometer, 54 degrees

For some time past, the brick and stonemasons' occupations have languished on account of the small quantity of lime on hand in this place.

Some half-dozen new dwellings have been commenced within the past few days, in the southeastern portion of the city, and all of them are models of architectural beauty.

Engrossing Committee

Mr. A. F. Gunn, the efficient manager of Iverson, Blakeman & Company's text-book interests on the Pacific coast, who left here this week, is making a tour of the Sound in the interests of his employers.

The steamboat wood trade of Olympia constitutes an important business industry. To supply this large number of men are constantly employed in the woods, while a corresponding number of teamsters are required to convey the wood to the wharves.

The editor of the Goldendale Scimitar is evidently either insane or doubtful of his identity. He was in Olympia a few days ago and after reading the Mayor's proclamation in regard to disreputable characters, immediately seized his grip-sack and left for his home.

Four wagons of immigrants passed through town this afternoon, who came across the plains, direct from Dodge City, Kansas. They number 12 persons—two women, four men and six children.

Mr. Roberts began, this morning, to put up the rafters on the hotel building, and now that the rains may come any day, every effort will be made to speedily finish the roof.

Mr. Howard's new flat, on the corner of Adams and Twelfth street, is enclosed and now ready for the roof.

The veteran sealer, Fred Drew, has been engaged to-day in measuring a large boom of logs at the Eastside yard.

Mr. Maurice McKieken, of the law firm of Struve, Haines & McKieken, Seattle, made this office a friendly call, to-day.

While the first meeting was being held in the barracks of the Salvation Army, Wednesday evening, the Hall was densely packed and the crackled when there was a sudden stampede for the door, and the building having been relieved of its overweight, nothing further occurred to disturb the peace or mar the harmony of the evening's exercises.

TERMINAL ITEMS

What is worth 65 cents in Penitentiary will be worth 10 cents in Lincoln county, and a Board of Trade.

The business men of the town of Slaughter will soon erect a $25,000 open house.

The assessed value of property in Klickitat county for 1889 is $1,920,330, an increase over last year of $179,382.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

Mr. W. J. Brown, well known in the Pacific Northwest as the former editor of the Pacific Journal, is showing the good work of which he is capable on the Astoria Pioneer.

A dispatch from North Yakima states that the Moxie company has just finished its thrashing and from an account somewhat over 300 acres of grain the average is thirty-five bushels to the acre.

TERMINAL ITEMS

Toledo, Lewis county, is soon to have a paper mill.

The business men of the town of Slaughter will soon erect a $25,000 open house.

The assessed value of property in Klickitat county for 1889 is $1,920,330, an increase over last year of $179,382.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

Mr. W. J. Brown, well known in the Pacific Northwest as the former editor of the Pacific Journal, is showing the good work of which he is capable on the Astoria Pioneer.

A dispatch from North Yakima states that the Moxie company has just finished its thrashing and from an account somewhat over 300 acres of grain the average is thirty-five bushels to the acre.

TERMINAL ITEMS

Toledo, Lewis county, is soon to have a paper mill.

The business men of the town of Slaughter will soon erect a $25,000 open house.

The assessed value of property in Klickitat county for 1889 is $1,920,330, an increase over last year of $179,382.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

Mr. W. J. Brown, well known in the Pacific Northwest as the former editor of the Pacific Journal, is showing the good work of which he is capable on the Astoria Pioneer.

A dispatch from North Yakima states that the Moxie company has just finished its thrashing and from an account somewhat over 300 acres of grain the average is thirty-five bushels to the acre.

TERMINAL ITEMS

Toledo, Lewis county, is soon to have a paper mill.

The business men of the town of Slaughter will soon erect a $25,000 open house.

The assessed value of property in Klickitat county for 1889 is $1,920,330, an increase over last year of $179,382.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

Mr. W. J. Brown, well known in the Pacific Northwest as the former editor of the Pacific Journal, is showing the good work of which he is capable on the Astoria Pioneer.

A dispatch from North Yakima states that the Moxie company has just finished its thrashing and from an account somewhat over 300 acres of grain the average is thirty-five bushels to the acre.

TERMINAL ITEMS

Toledo, Lewis county, is soon to have a paper mill.

The business men of the town of Slaughter will soon erect a $25,000 open house.

The assessed value of property in Klickitat county for 1889 is $1,920,330, an increase over last year of $179,382.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

There are 358,125 acres of railroad land in Klickitat County, which are assessed this year at an average of about 80 cents an acre, and the company is endeavoring to have it returned to the public domain.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

The census returns for the year 1880 show the population of Walla Walla County to be 12,307.

Mr. W. J. Brown, well known in the Pacific Northwest as the former editor of the Pacific Journal, is showing the good work of which he is capable on the Astoria Pioneer.

A dispatch from North Yakima states that the Moxie company has just finished its thrashing and from an account somewhat over 300 acres of grain the average is thirty-five bushels to the acre.

PAST ALL PRECEDENT. Over a Million Distributed

Louisiana State Lottery Company

For Integrity of its Drawings, and Prompt Payment of Prizes.

Grand Monthly Drawing, September 10, 1889.

Capital Prize, $300,000

Table with 2 columns: Prize Amount and Odds

AGENTS WANTED

Important

IF YOU WOULD BUY THE BEST AND CHEAPEST

Office and Parlor Heating

KITCHEN STOVES AND RANGES

OHAS. PATNUDE, CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

UNION MARKET

FRESH, SMOKED AND CURED MEATS

J. W. ROBERTS, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER

DO ALL KINDS OF JOBS

Central Market

FRESH AND CURED MEATS