within political circles, and again there comes up the democratic war cry of "turn the rascals out.

A dispatch from Olympia says the friends of woman suffrage are absolutely howling. The committee on the question (elections and elective rights) is said to be opposed to the whole business in any shape, manner or form. P. C. Sullivan, of Tacoma, is chairman. The committee on miscellaneous subjects, to which was referred the prohibition petitions have declared against prohibition, except Mr. Dickey, and decided to table the petitions at present.
