DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR STATE SENATOR, S. H. BERRY. FOR REPRESENTATIVES, W. O. BENNETT, Y. L. HALE. FOR COUNTY CLERK, A. DONAHOE.

"LORD" ST. HERREN will go unmolested through the campaign so far as THE NUGGET is concerned.

Hon. S. H. Berry for State Senator.

THE County Board allowed the Hon. Henry Long a $1,500 contract—many would like it for $1,000.

THERE must be no corruption at the polls in this election. Honest men of all parties should see to this.

It may now be said of Tanner that he is both a physical and official wreck. It is noted also that the administration is leaking badly.

How did the republicans of Chehalis like ex-Governor Squires' speech last Tuesday night? He spoke very highly of Grover Cleveland.

In the Ohio and also in the Pennsylvania Democratic conventions the name of Grover Cleveland was received with wild and enthusiastic applause.

W. O. Bennett and Y. L. Hale for state representatives.

A PARTY whose real platform is friendship for corporations and disregard for the people is unworthy of power. Such a party is the republican party of Washington.

THE republicans claim all the credit for the admission of Washington. Remember that the bill was engineered by a Democrat and signed by a Democratic president.

In voting for the democratic legislative ticket in Lewis county you are voting for the people. In voting for the republican party you are voting for the corporations. Which will you choose?

THE Democratic party believes in protection to the workingman, while the republican magnates believe in getting as much as possible out of the workingman and giving him as little as possible in return.

CONTRAST the republican legislative ticket with that of the Democrats of Lewis county. To any intelligent man who knows the men whose names appear thereon comment is unnecessary. W. O. Bennett and Y. L. Hale are the people's choice.

Vote for A. Donahoe for county clerk.

It is an indisputable fact that S. H. Berry is not only the peer of his opponent in learning, but is his superior. That his character, both public and private, does not admit of reproach. When these elements exist in any candidate for a public office, whether he be Democrat, republican or otherwise, we ask what is the duty of the voter?

UNDER Democratic rule and doctrine manufactories flourish, wages keep pace with the cost of living, homes and firesides owned by operatives are possible and prosperity brightens every prospect and cheers every heart—this the result of the protection of American labor. The obverse of this picture is the republican party. Vote the Democratic ticket.

THE three "silver-tongued" orators, Messrs. Coffman, Millet and Forrest, who made such flowery speeches at Centralia a few days ago for the benefit of Henry Long the "highcockalorum" of the republican party of Lewis county, and who, so we are informed, advertised THE NUGGET, are entitled to bulldog chromos. No hard feelings on our part gentlemen, do it some more.

Vote for A. Donahoe for county clerk.

THE voters of the north end of the county—irrespective of party—should not forget that Nick Owens' henchman took a very active part in having that portion of the county cut off from old Lewis when the territory was divided into districts at the time of the election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention. And now he comes and asks you for your votes. Look out for him.

Mr. Long may have come to this territory without boots or shoes, others have done so, but it is an old worn out story of his; he has always worked for Henry Long. He has no record as a representative of the people. He promised that he would serve them honestly, truthfully and look after their interests. Did he do it? How could he when he stood with the moneyed power? Not so with S. H. Berry.

HON. T. C. GRIFFITTS is a representative man in the fullest sense and a recognized ornament to the Democratic party. He is probably the clearest headed statesman east of the mountains and the best of any public man in the territory. He will be elected by an emphatic majority, and Western Washington should do its full share toward swelling this majority, fully confident that it has a true friend in Hon. T. C. Griffiths.

Vote the Democratic ticket.

THE Chairman of the republican convention called on Henry Long to make a little speech and like the boy who hid behind the log he arose and placing the log that he claimed saved his life in an upright position asked for the sympathy of an intelligent audience. He then called out the name of a lady to bear witness that he was the man, she arose at the call, but it now appears that she was not at that fort at the time.

THE contrast between the speech of John L. Wilson and Hon. T. C. Griffiths was striking in one particular. Mr. Wilson had not a word to say on the subject of tide or school lands. Mr. Griffiths has labored hard in the constitutional convention to preserve these lands to the people, and went on record as unqualifiedly in favor of their being forever so preserved. All the Democratic nominees stand solid on the same point.

THE thoughtful voter, whatever his party faith, is compelled to admit that no man in Lewis county is better prepared for meeting and handling the questions that will come before the first legislature of the new state of Washington than W. O. Bennett and Y. L. Hale. Who is there who does not know that these gentlemen will be found working early and late for the people of Lewis county? With the friends of the people they will meet in the first legislature they will be able to work to a double advantage for the county they will represent.

Hon. S. H. Berry is the workingmans' friend.

THE MINORITY IN CONGRESS.

The republican party with a bare majority in the House of Representatives takes a very different view of the rights of a minority from what it held when the Democrats had a majority.

In the last three congresses the republican minority in the House repeatedly prevented even the consideration of a bill to reduce the taxes. It resisted at every step measures for the good of the country which had been approved by the people in the general election, for no other apparent reason than that the adoption of such measures might benefit the Democratic party. And it filibustered or broke a quorum whenever such proceedings were necessary to give effect to its caucus decrees.

But now that the situation is reversed the republican leaders propose to so change the rules of the House as to give them absolute control of legislation. And their organs denounce as "revolutionary" the Democratic purpose to resist any such autocratic exercise of power. The Democrats have no intention of acting as mere obstructionists. They do not forget that the minority has duties as well as rights. They do not intend to consent to any change in the rules that will deprive them of their right to debate fully every measure brought before the House, nor that will prevent them from defeating, by all constitutional and parliamentary means, legislation which they regard as dangerous or hurtful to the country.

Upon the republican theory, the Democratic representatives might about as well stay at home or have their dissenting votes registered by an automatic machine against any party measure which the majority may bring forward. The whipcrackers are likely to discover that in this country the minority has some rights which the majority is bound to respect.

A. Donahoe has served the people as clerk of the district court—vote for him for county clerk.

A WARNING.

It is intimated, indeed openly claimed by persons in a position to know that the republican bosses have on foot a scheme for buying their political opponents on election day that if carried into execution would prove an ineffaceable stain on the political record of the great State of Washington, and a gratuitous insult to that instrument of popular sovereignty, the ballot. It is asserted that on Monday, September 30th, the day prior to election, and when too late to permit of the possibility of a reply to the calumnies set forth, the republican journals intend to bury the Democratic candidates for congress, and governor under such a mountain of vituperation and abuse, that the next day they will be littered snowed under by the votes, not only for those declared opponents, but also of those disgusted Democrats who have been hitherto their warm adherents. If this assertion has any foundation in fact it should be sufficient to forever damn the republican party in Washington; for scurrilous political jobbery of this sort never has, and we venture to say, never will be in sympathy with the mass of the great American people. This policy is on its face so short-sighted and would do such lasting harm to their party interests that we can hardly credit the republican bosses, who, by the bye, are anything but fools, with pig-headedness enough to lead them to attempt it. We believe that fair feeling of fair play which forms so large a component part of the American charter, will step in and turn back upon the heads of the malefactors the weapons with which they aim to kill their political enemies, and entertain serious doubts whether, after this warning, any intelligent admirer of Jeffersonian principles can be deluded or turned aside from the clear path of duty, by chicanery or political knavery any sort whatsoever on the part of republican ringsters.

S. H. Berry fought corporations in the constitutional convention.

Have you tried the Figaro cigar? Seidenberg & Co's name is stamped on every cigar. It is the finest cigar for the money ever sold here. Kirk keeps them.

Vote for W. O. Bennett and Y. L. Hale for representatives.

NOT THE MAN WE WANT.

To be Considered by the Voters of Centralia and Lewis County

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NUGGET: Who is your representative man? Who attends your board of trade, state capital or business men's meetings? Who takes part in locating new county roads into your town? Who subscribes toward the building of bridges in your vicinity? Who subscribes to the state capitol fund? In fact, who takes an interest in any public enterprise in your town or county? Not Mr. Chas. Gilchrist, as any citizen of Centralia can testify to. Not one dollar has he paid toward any of the above. All that interests him is his own private building and business, which means money in his pocket at the expense of his patrons, and yet his constituents clamor "representative man."

This is a question that every honest voter ought to, and will, consider at the polls on October 1st. If he is not a representative man in his own town and for his own people, what can be expected of him in any legislature? It is simply a farce to put a capitalist up against an honest laboringman's candidate. His own constituents are beginning to weaken on him, but the voters will weaken him still more on October 1st.

A CENTRALIA REPUBLICAN. VOTE for W. O. Bennett and Y. L. Hale for representatives.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge, Munday Esq., county attorney, Clay Co., Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother or also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

M. D. I. Wickson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

Remember A. Donahoe for county clerk on October 1st.

HE LOVES THE RAILROAD CO.

EDITOR NUGGET:—The following letter from John B. Allen and Senator W. B. Allison plainly show that Henry Long was not in favor of giving the Chehalis postmastership to an old soldier, but preferred a Northern Pacific Railroad employee. Mr. Allen was willing, as his letter shows, to help an old soldier, but Long loved the railroad company and its employees too well and could not think of going back on them:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12. H. METZ:—I have yours of the 4th inst. and note contents. When the proper time comes if I can serve you it will give me pleasure to do so. But in postoffice matters you should have the support of the patrons of the office and the delegate from the territory ought to be advised. Yours Truly, W. B. ALLISON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23. H. METZ:—Your letter of January 30th is at hand, with enclosures of petition for postoffice, largely signed, and letters of Hon. Jas. E. White and Senator Allison; also one from Judge Root of Olympia.

I will place same on file in the proper office, as your letter indicates that you desire, and will, as I wrote you before, consider the same carefully and kindly along with the others. The fact that you were a good soldier is a circumstance, other things being equal, which I shall not lose sight of. My position regarding your postoffice is somewhat embarrassing, as I before stated I wish to act in a manner which will be satisfactory to the business community and to our party in that locality. Yours, J. B. ALLEN.

This letter shows that Henry Long did not care for an old soldier nor the wishes of the party.

VOTE for Hon. S. H. Berry for state senator.

If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at J. H. Moss' drug store.

Parents should be careful that their children do not contract colds during the fall or early winter months. Such colds weaken the lungs and air passages, making the child much more likely to contract other colds during the winter. It is this succession of colds that causes catarrh and bronchitis or paves the way for consumption. Should a cold be contracted, loose no time but cure it as quickly as possible. A fifty-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold in a few days and leave the respiratory organs strong and healthy. For sale by J. H. Moss.
