BENCH AND BAR

A department devoted to the activities of the members of the Bench and Bar, and other allied groups. Communications are requested from officers and committee members of all agencies engaged in, or connected with, the administration of justice. Local bar associations are invited to report their activities through this department. Please address all communications intended for this department to LESLIE J AYER, ASSOCIATE EDITOR, WASHINGTON LAW REVIEW, UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

The Executive Committee of the Association met in Seattle November 2nd, for what is believed to be the first actual meeting ever held of such a committee except at conventions. Ray Venables came from Spokane, Glen Madison from Bellingham, J. E. Stewart from Aberdeen, D. H. Bonsted from Yakima and H. G. Heinly from Tacoma.

Walla Walla was selected for the next convention, and the dates are fixed as Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 19-21. Plans were made for a program which would attract lawyers young and old, including round-table discussions, addresses of a practical nature, and the systematic introduction of the younger lawyers to the judges and older lawyers.

The entire committee list was discussed and approved and committees were requested to report to the Executive Committee in advance of the convention so that such reports as it deemed advisable could be printed and distributed in advance of the convention. Most of the committee appointees have expressly accepted their appointment and genuine results are expected.

The following is the roster of officers, and of the committees thus far appointed:
