COMMITTEE REPORTS

Report of Committee on Public Relations

To the Board of Governors,
Washington State Bar Association.

The Committee on Public Relations has actively functioned throughout the year, yet I can report to you no material result.

I have heretofore suggested that no material result in a sense subject to measurement will doubtless ever be attained by this committee except by using a yardstick over a long term of years.

The year has marked a development in the activity of such committees generally in the various state bars and the American Bar Association.

Problems facing these committees have in no wise been lessened by the attack upon the Supreme Court, the attempt to organize the Lawyers Guild and the weakening of what many of us have thought were fundamental rights of property and the person.

Your committee has been cooperating by correspondence and exchange of ideas with various state bar committees and with the American Bar Association.

Locally, as far as districts are concerned, last year the 6th district had the best organization. This year, due to the efforts of Chairman Matthew Stafford, ably assisted by Wm. F. Devin, the 1st district is in the vanguard. Chairman Stafford has discarded other activities and is making a case study of organized and disorganized work attempted and accomplished in the past by committees comparable to our own, and when this work is completed, it should be of lasting benefit to your committee. The last issue of the Washington Law Review and State Bar Journal carried Mr. Devin's report which all should read, "clip the coupon" and by the advisory ballot help formulate the work of the committee.
