Convention Meter

A Cottage in Paradise

*Two in a cabin costs no more than one,
Three dollars furnished—come on and have fun!
Two nights at six dollars, including a moon—
Make reservations for Paradise soon.*

*Choose your own neighbors—your wife can come, too;
The Inn or the Lodge are there to serve you;
Or bring your own food (watch out for the bears),
You and your wife will forget all your cares.*

Lodge in Paradise

*At the Lodge it is cheaper if you can get two,
Six dollars for both, if there's someone with you:
For just one alone it's four dollars per day
Including a bath—yes, the water's okay.*

*If you can skip only one Saturday night,
And that shouldn't be such a terrible plight,
Three dollars for one and four-fifty for two,
No bath—only Paradise waiting for you.*

Inn in Paradise

*Eight dollars double—the Inn with a bath,
Includes all your meals. Does that hand you a laugh?
It's one dollar more all alone for each day,
So double up, brother, you'll save more that way.*

*If you don't want a bath at the Inn it will be
Six-fifty for each if you double, you see;
Alone it's eight dollars—you'll never regret
The time that you spend at Convention, you bet!*

Junior Bar

*The Junior Bar program is something, I hear,
And if you remember Convention last year,
You'll know that the young lawyers sure made a hit;
Well, they're back again with their humor and wit!*

Seattle Bar

*Seattle Bar lawyers have taken a vow
To put on a show that is really a wow;
With dignity proper and maybe a smile,
The S. B. A. says you will roll in the aisle.*

Section Meetings

*There will be section meetings, a new thought this year,
In which you will all be included, I hear;
So come to the meetings all ready to speak,
Don't sit back at home. Come on, just take a peek.*

Banquet

*And all this leads up to the banquet, my friends,
The most serious orator always unbends;
Amusement galore has been planned for your wife
As well as for you. So come on! That's the life!*
