The Spokane Convention

"The Friendly City" Is This Year's Host to Washington Lawyers

Under Philip S. Brooke, general Chairman, the convention committees of the Spokane Bar Association have carefully polished off the final arrangements for the three-day influx of Washington lawyers and judges that will flow into Spokane July 20, 21 and 22. The Superior Court Judges' Association will meet on Thursday, July 20, leaving the judges free to participate in the general convention of the Washington State Bar Association on Friday and Saturday, the 21st and 22nd of July. The official programs appear elsewhere in this issue.

The natural advantages of Spokane as a host city have been ably capitalized by the convention committees to assure the attending members of the bench and bar of utmost facility in the handling of convention business, pleasant quarters and delightful entertainment, all within a most reasonable scale of prices, as indicated in the schedule on the next page.

Headquarters

Convention headquarters and registration will be at the famed Davenport Hotel. Members are requested to register on arrival. Information as to convention events and affairs will be available at these headquarters. Advance accommodations can be arranged through the office of the State Bar Association, 655 Dexter Horton Building, Seattle, by mail or personal call.

For the Ladies

To entertain the visiting ladies, Mrs. Floyd B. Danskin, assisted by a committee of Spokane ladies, including Mrs. Philip S. Brooke, Mrs. W. B. Chandler, Mrs. Paul F. Schiffner, Mrs. Harold E. Fraser and Miss Marguerite McCarthy, will act as hostesses to the ladies accompanying their husbands to convention.

On Friday evening, at 6:30, there will be a dinner at the Spokane Country Club. Mrs. Walter B. Beals, who is a lawyer and wife of a Supreme Court justice, will speak on "Experiences of a Pioneer Woman Lawyer."

An automobile ride has been planned for Friday afternoon, leaving from the Davenport Hotel at 2 o'clock.

On Saturday at 1 o'clock there will be a luncheon at the Spokane City and University Club.

The ladies also are urged to attend the annual banquet of the association Saturday evening at the Davenport Hotel. The speakers are especially able, their topics are of broad general interest and ladies in attendance should not omit this convention highlight from their plans.
