

1-1-1941

Law School Banquet Held on February 7th; Special Lectures on Air and Radio Law; Applications Being Received by Federal Bureau of Investigation

Judson F. Falknor

University of Washington School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/wlr>

Recommended Citation

Judson F. Falknor, Law School Notes, Law School Banquet Held on February 7th; Special Lectures on Air and Radio Law; Applications Being Received by Federal Bureau of Investigation, 16 Wash. L. Rev. & St. B.J. i (1941).

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/wlr/vol16/iss1/8>

This Law School Notes is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Reviews and Journals at UW Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Washington Law Review by an authorized editor of UW Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact cnyberg@uw.edu.

LAW SCHOOL NOTES

LAW SCHOOL BANQUET HELD ON FEBRUARY 7th

The annual banquet of the University of Washington Law School was held at the Edmond Meany Hotel in Seattle on February 7th, 1941. Over 250 law students, law teachers, lawyers and judges were in attendance. Mr. Tracy Griffin of Seattle, and First District Representative on the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association, served as toastmaster. In addition to the principal address by Mr. Allan Hart, Chief Counsel for the Bonneville Power Administration, the program included talks by Judge Samuel M. Driver of the State Supreme Court; Honorable Smith M. Troy, Attorney General, and Mr. Bernard Reiter of the Seattle Bar. Vocal selections by Harry Hansen (first year law student) completed an interesting and well-received program.

SPECIAL LECTURES ON AIR AND RADIO LAW

A series of five special lectures on Air and Radio Law has recently been concluded at the University of Washington Law School. The first three lectures (on Air Law) were presented by Mr. William M. Allen of Seattle, a member of the firm of Todd, Holman, Sprague & Allen. The two lectures on Radio Law were presented by Mr. Donald G. Graham and Mr. Frank T. Rosenquist of Seattle, of the firm of Graham, Howe & Dunn. For the students in the Law School the lectures represented an extremely worthwhile opportunity to acquire some familiarity with two increasingly important legal areas.

APPLICATIONS BEING RECEIVED BY FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

The Agent in charge of the Seattle office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation has advised me that the Bureau is interested in receiving applications from those qualified for appointments as Special Agents.

Basic qualifications are as follows:

An applicant must be between the ages of 23 and 35; a graduate of a recognized school of law; at least 5' 7" in height; have uncorrected vision of not less than 20/40 in one eye and at least 20/50 in the weaker eye without glasses, and at least 20/20 in each eye corrected; and be in such physical condition that he can be certified for strenuous physical exertion by an examining physician. No applicant can be considered who has been found to be color blind.

Entrance salary for Special Agents is $3200 per annum.

All applications should be made direct to Mr. John Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

JUDSON F. FALKNOR, Dean,
University of Washington Law School.