BAR BRIEFS

Miss Clydene Morris has recently received a letter from Captain Shirley R. Marsh in which all of the members of the Bar will undoubtedly be interested. Capt. Marsh, who is connected with the Civil Affairs Training Center, has spent considerable time under the burning sun of Africa and subsequent to that by way of contrast, shivered in the snow and ice of Southern Italy. We are repeating what Capt. Marsh reports and assume no liability for disagreement with pre-war travel literature. The letter was written from England where the Captain is currently stationed. On a leave of absence he spent some time in London and reports interestingly concerning a parliamentary debate relative to the rights of women to receive equal pay for equal work. He also tells of having listened to Winston Churchill address the House, at the conclusion of which address the Prime Minister demanded and received a vote of confidence. A clipping from a London paper was enclosed wherein the Judge of one of the English courts reprimanded the barristers for hurrying out of chambers every time it appeared that counsel would be required for an indigent prisoner. The Captain remarked that for all its tradition, the English barristers apparently had no greater desire for non-paying clients than their American brethren. In his travels he has met among others, Judge Douglas, Judge Dawson of Bellingham and Carl Quackenbush.

The Seattle Bar Association is arranging to publish the new rules of the Supreme Court, the rules of pleading and practice, the general rules of the Superior Court and the special rules of the Superior Court of King County. These are to be put out in a permanent volume with a semi-stiff cover. The interesting feature of the compilation is that it will be so arranged so that there will be blank pages at the end of each section for the insertion of changes or amendments. Unlike former works of this character it can be kept up to date and should be usable for many years. The volume will be distributed gratis to all members of the Seattle Bar and extra copies will be available to non-members at a reasonable charge.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the petition of Ray B. Greenwood, formerly of Bremerton, Washington, and now a resident of Seattle, for reinstatement to membership in the Washington State Bar Association has been filed in the Executive Office of the Association and that said petition will come on for hearing before a special meeting of the Board of Governors of said Washington State Bar Association to be held at the Emerson Hotel, Hoquiam, Washington, on the 15th day of July, 1944, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Greenwood was disbarred by order of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington made and entered on the 2nd day of April, 1941, upon the grounds of unethical conduct and for certain failures to account.

SAVE THIS DATE

The annual meeting of the Washington State Bar Association and the Superior Court Judges' Association will be held in Tacoma, Washington, on Friday, September 29, 1944. Meetings will be held at the Hotel Winthrop and a tentative program will be published in the July issue of the State Bar Journal.
