NOTES FROM THE SPOKANE BAR ASSOCIATION

Mr Frank Weaver, president of the Spokane County Bar Association, has recently been honored by being selected as the new Dean of the Law School of the Gonzaga University. He succeeds the Honorable Lewis B Schwellenbach, now Secretary of Labor.

Other new members of the faculty of Gonzaga University include Charles T Sharp, E W Van Tyen, Norman Sven Johnson, John S Huneke and Leslie M Carroll.

Mr Ben H Kizer of the firm of Graves, Kizer and Graves, has just returned to Spokane after serving for some time as the Director of UNRA in Chungking.

The first two attorneys admitted to the Bar in the Spokane area under the veterans' provisions are Lester P Edge, Jr, and Dennis H Pottratz, both of whom were admitted during the month of September.

NOTICE TO PIERCE COUNTY ATTORNEYS

We have been requested by the Honorable Ernest M Card, presiding judge of the Superior Court, Pierce County, to publicize the following rule of court which has been adopted by the Superior Court of King County:

"XXIII Beginning on September 1, 1946, motions and assignment of cases for trial will be heard on any week day (except Saturday) at 9:30 a m upon notice to opposition counsel as required by rule or statute"

Correction of Geographical Listing of Lawyers

On Page 121 of the April, 1946, issue, the town of Tenino was listed as having no lawyer. This was a regrettable oversight which we hasten to correct by pointing out that Mr P C Kibbe is and has been practicing in Tenino for a long period.
