ANNUAL MEETING
of the
WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

EDITOR'S NOTE

Owing to limitations of space, it was necessary to eliminate some of the reports and speeches altogether, and to delete certain portions of others. It is very much regretted that the complete proceedings could not have been printed, and your editor reluctantly had to use his own best judgment in attempting to condense the material into the space which was available.

A report was made on "The Insanity Bill" by Mary Alvord, on "Justice Court Procedure" by Honorable John Neergaard, and on "The Lawyers' Reference Plan" by Fred W. Gilbert. An address entitled "Military Justice" was delivered by Donald G. Simpson, a discussion entitled "Can Non-Observance of a Minimum Fee Schedule Be Covered by an Effective Rule" was given by W. A. Ackerman, and a talk was given on "Russia and the Atomic Bomb" by John Wallace DeBeque Ferris.
