Notice of Application by C. G. Moran for Reinstatement As An Attorney

Notice is hereby given that C. G. Moran has filed with the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association, a petition for reinstatement as attorney; that the Secretary of the Board has fixed the 14th day of February, 1948, at the hour of 10:00 A.M., as the time, and the office of said association, 501 Third Avenue, Seattle, as the place for hearing upon said petition; that said petitioner was disbarred by order of the Supreme Court of Washington made and entered on the 21st day of October, 1940; that the grounds for such order of disbarment were, principally, violation of canon 11 of the Canons of Professional Ethics, which forbids, for personal use or gain, abuse or the taking advantage of the confidence of a client, requires an attorney promptly to report and account to a client for moneys of the client coming into the attorney's possession, forbids the commingling of a client's funds with those of the attorney and forbids also the use by an attorney of such funds; that the particulars of such violations will be found summarized in the opinion of the Supreme Court, reported in 5 Wn.(2d), 679.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC.,
REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912, AS AMENDED BY THE ACTS OF MARCH 3, 1933, AND JULY 2, 1946

Of Washington Law Review and State Bar Journal published quarterly at Seattle, Washington for October 1, 1947.

State of Washington } ss.
County of King }

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared John W. Richards, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Washington Law Review and State Bar Journal, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the acts of March 3, 1933, and July 2, 1946, (Section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations), printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, Washington Law Review, Condon Hall, Seattle 5, Washington. Editor, Milton D. Green, Condon Hall, Seattle 5, Washington. Managing Editor, none. Business Manager, John W. Richards, Condon Hall, Seattle 5, Washington.

2. That the owner is: (If owned by a corporation, its name and address must be stated and also immediately thereunder the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding one per cent or more of total amount of stock. If not owned by a corporation, the names and addresses of the individual owners must be given. If owned by a firm, company, or other unincorporated concern, its name and address, as well as those of each individual member, must be given.) Washington Law Review Association, Condon Hall, University of Washington, Seattle 5, Washington.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state) None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest, direct or indirect, in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

JOHN W. RICHARDS,
Business Manager.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29th day of September, 1947.
