BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES

The legal literature of the Far East and Russia, on the average lawyer's bookshelf, is not crowding out the Reporter system. Yet it may be available to him in a nearby law library. In cooperation with some of those libraries, and with the Far Eastern Law Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of International and Comparative Law, the Review here initiates, for the lawyer interested, a listing of basic law books, with indication of their location.¹

Lack of space in this issue precludes publication of more than a sample listing. Considerably more information has been and will be collected than can be published, even should future numbers be expanded. Those who do not have the opportunity to see Library of Congress publications or union catalogs are invited to write for information about desired books to the law librarian at the University of Washington:

Below are listed codes of the R.S.F.S.R. (to date the U.S.S.R. has no federal code, although several have been drafted), with no distinction between official and "pocket" editions. The libraries owning them are indicated by these symbols:

- CLL Los Angeles County Law Library, 703 Hall of Records, Los Angeles 12
- *CSt-H Hoover Institute and Library, Palo Alto, Calif.
- Cu University of California Library and Law Library, Berkeley, Calif.
- MiU-L University of Michigan Law Library, Ann Arbor, Mich.
- Mnu-L University of Minnesota Law Library, Minneapolis 14, Minn.
- WaU-L University of Washington Law Library, Seattle 5, Wash.

Starred symbols indicate libraries lending to lawyers and to other libraries, unstarred libraries are restricted to interlibrary loan.
