CSt-H, WaU-L

A collection and classification of criminal law and procedure cases from 1892 to 1941. Convenient and authoritative.

IEN-L, WaU-L

The author is an advocate of the theory of objective-retaliation in the academic world of criminal jurisprudence. This is a systematic textbook on the ethical responsibility theory, and is authoritative.

MiU-L, WaU-L

WaU-L

"Zumutbarkeit" is commonly accepted by Japanese criminal lawyers and by the courts since about 1933. The author here studies the theory in relation to legal history and comparative law. This is the best book on the theory.

Article 703 of Japanese civil code, "A person who without any legal ground derives a benefit from the property or services of another and thereby causes loss to the other is bound to return such benefit to that extent that it still exists," is thoroughly studied in this book from the standpoint of comparative jurisprudence.

WaU-L

Section 708 of the Civil Code prescribes that "A person who effects an act of performance on any illegal ground cannot demand the return of the subject matter of such an act of performance." This book is an excellent monograph concerned with concrete application of the "clean hands" theory to fact situations.

IEN-L, WaU-L

These are commentaries on new laws and ordinances, written jointly by faculty members of Tokyo University

WaU-L

The author is the greatest authority on Japanese civil jurisprudence, and these works are said to be the best on civil law to date. Social functions of the cases and statutes are elaborately analyzed, complete reference is made to the governing cases.

CLL, CtY-L (vs. 1, 3, 4) , MnU-L (v 1 only) , WaU-L
A study of the development of war-time economic control legislation in Japan, with some reference to economic democracy in foreign countries.
CSt-H, WaU-L

The author pictures the civil law as a huge system evolving from the lower and simpler to the higher and more complicated concepts.
CSt-H, WaU-L

The author was persecuted during the war because he was a liberal; he is an authority in Japan on international law; he was actively engaged as adviser for translation in the Tokyo Tribunal. In this book, he studies the various war-crimes.
CSt-H, IEN-L, WaU-L

A collection of essays treating such problems as the psychology of paticides, the criminological meaning of taboo, the social aspects of crimes, etc.
